RSS, Podcasting and Blogging - how the new web technology can enhance creativity and communication

FREE SEMINAR

Thursday 1st December, 1:30pm

Bridge Hall Primary School, Stockport

The new web technologies of RSS, podcasting and blogging have huge potential to enhance creativity in the curriculum and improve communication within the school community. What's more, it will cost you practically nothing to implement.

On this thought-provoking seminar find out how to:

- create your own internet radio station
- setup school blogs to keep parents informed
- use blogs for children to work collaboratively online
- use an RSS News Reader
- download free or very cheap software to get started
